

Go to School Every Day It's a good thing!

Is Your Child in School?

Your child must go to school every day to achieve success in every grade and earn a high school diploma. New York State has a law that requires children to go to school.

Send a Note when Your Child is Absent

You must send a note when your child is absent explaining why your child was not in school.

Missing School Causes Problems for Your Child and You

Your child could fail, not be promoted, or lose credit. If your child misses too many days without an explanation, the school district will make a complaint to Child Protective Services.
